'The Promise' Celebrity Chef Dinner

It was certainly a fantastic dinner held at Bunurong Restaurant at the Frankston campus of Chisholm Institute.

Celebrity chef, Bernard McCarthy (right) from Salix Restaurant at the Willow Creek Winery, situated on the Mornington Peninsula generously contributed his services, working with the Hospitality students for the night, leading them through a wonderful array of courses served with great aplomb to the 60 guests.

The theme of the dinner – 'The Promise' celebrated Caroline Chisholm's famous words – "I promise to know neither country nor creed, but to serve all justly and impartially" which today echo just as relevantly in our increasingly multicultural society.

The extremely tasty dishes that delighted the palate included oysters served with gruyere mini toasts, scallops with smoky eggplant filled peppers, salmon with asparagus, lamb with skordalia and Main Ridge feta crumble and of course, the sweet finale, a Belgium chocolate soft centred pudding with poached pear and honeycomb pure cream.

Guests purchased lucky envelopes which scored them a myriad of prizes that included Fresh<sub>2</sub>U fruit and vegetable deliveries, Mondial Roadside Assist Membership, Short Course Vouchers and Patisserie 121 Gift Vouchers.

CCEF New Trustees

At the Trustee meeting in September it was the happy duty of Trustees to welcome two new Trustees, both of whom represent the wider community in their Trustee role.

David Willersdorf

Charles Wilkins

Both Trustees are welcome additions for their wealth of knowledge of the business sector and dedication to the benefits of education.

Private Donations

The Trustees wish to thank individuals, businesses and Rotary Clubs for their donations and services in 2009/2010, all of which has resulted in a substantial increase in the number of awards.
